

REMANUAL POSITORY

ELECTRONIC RESEARCH REPOSITORY REMANUAL USER GUIDE FOR THE USP ELECTRONIC The USP Electronic Research Repository (www.repository.usp.ac.fj) collects, maintains, promotes and disseminates the research and scholarly outputs of all USP academic and comparable professional staff, research and technical support staff, adjunct appointments and students enrolled at the University. Records can be browsed by author, date, subject, division and type. The Research Repository also provides access to an electronic copy of the material when available. The Repository represents a major knowledge management resource of the University and demonstrates the range and level of research achievement of USP Staff and Students.
