

“Glowing Silhouettes” is a song which is part of the “Detour: Original Motion Picture Soundtrack” album and features in the film Detour. Detour is a feature-length film written, produced and directed by Anurag Subramani. The film is still under production, with hopes that it will be released early next year. The film has a cast and crew of all local artists. The film features 10 original songs, all composed and sung by local artists.

“Glowing Silhouettes” is the first song from the film that was released on local radio stations. The song was composed and put to music by Abhi. It features the vocals of Abhi and Jasmine Duxbury. The music video of the song has been playing on all local TV stations on their music shows. The video was filmed on location on the rooftop of the Noble House Restaurant in Flagstaff. Anurag Subramani directed the video. He has worked very closely with musicians on all the songs featured in the film and directed all the music videos.